

I'd like to send a brief email about the thought of overturning NJ's Do Not Call Law. My opinion is that if companies want to solicit whatever they are trying to sell, let them spend the postage and direct their inquiries to my house thru the US Mail. It was my decision to sign up and not to be harrassed by telemarketers... all hours of the day and especially during suppertime ( which is familytime...)